

Help Identify the Best Cable Communications Projects as a Beacon Award Judge

For 20 years, The Beacon Award® has been the cable industry's highest honor for communications and public affairs excellence. ACC invites its members to choose the best of the best cable communications and public affairs initiatives of the past year by being a 2009 Beacon Award judge.

As a Beacon Award judge, you will learn what your cable communications peers across the country are accomplishing and will walk away from the experience with hundreds of new ideas. It's easier than ever. If you volunteer to judge the preliminary round, ACC will mail several entries to you to review anytime, anywhere during a two-week judging period in July.

Please RSVP to Michelle Butler by faxing this sheet to (202) 222-2371, calling (202) 222-2372 or emailing mbutler@cablecommunicators.org
